From the New York Herald

THE ADMINISTRATION AND THE COUNTRY.--THE DO NOTHING POLICY AND ITS DANGERS.

The President, Vice President and half the Cabinet are absent from Washington. The government, like a railway train in the absence of the conductor and engineer, is standing still. Yes, standing still and losing time which may never be regained under General Grant. The country is perplexed and disappointed, the outside world is incredulous, but still, while at home the impression is daily gaining strength that we have nothing to expect, the idea is beginning to prevail abroad that we have nothing to fear from General Grant's administration. Dry rot has seized upon the Cabinet, and the republican party is falling to pieces. The Secretary of the Treasury is doing something to stop the leaks and keep the ship afloat, and we see occasionally some spasmodic signs of life in the Navy Department and the War Office; but otherwise, like an abandoned hulk, the government appears to be drifting along at the mercy of wind and wave.

Strange questions are beginning to be asked, such as these, concerning General Grant: Is he a man of genius or a man of luck? Has he any of the qualities of a statesman, or is he simply a soldier? Has he any desire to make his administration famous in history, or is he satisfied with the honors he has achieved? Or is he afraid to move on the right hand or the left, or to push forward, for fear of making a mistake? Is it Grant or McClellan that is President? Can it be that the hero of Donelson, Shiloh, Vicksburg, Chattanooga, the Wilderness, Petersburg and the vigorous chase up to "the Appomatox apple tree" has become the head of an establishment of Quakers, from the State Department down to the Indian Bureau? Can it be that, too much impressed with the misfortunes of Andy Johnson in his efforts to maintain his own policy, General Grant has resolved to do nothing without express authority from Congress? Or is it possible that he does nothing because he knows not what to do? Are his designs so broad, deep and comprehensive that we cannot grasp them? or has he any clear perceptions of the duties, advantages, opportunities and responsibilities of his position.

We cannot answer these questions. So far the do-nothing policy of the administration answers them to the prejudice of Gen Grant. We had supposed that in rushing through the repulsive drudgery of the division of the public plunder he was anxious to get at the more important matters of business before him, touching our foreign and domestic affairs. It would appear, however, that he was desirous of getting this distasteful job of the spoils off his hands in order to have a longer enjoyment in the summer recreations of a Congressional recess; and that, come what may in the interval to December, he has made up his mind to let our domestic and foreign relations take care of themselves, so as to be free, at any inviting call, to go anywhere, and take his afternoon drive and evening cigar in peace. We cannot imagine that General Grant is still casting about for his policy. His inaugural leads us to a different conclusion. We believe that he has a policy matured—a broad, progressive and comprehensive American policy; but that he thinks the Treasury needs repose, and that he and the country, and England, Spain, Cuba and Mexico can wait till the re assembling of Congress in December.

In this view the executive branch of our government becomes a cipher. It was a department of recognized power in the worst days of Buchanan, and its strength even against a two-thirds vote in both houses of Congress, was still made manifest under Johnson. With a do-nothing President in 1861 the administration would have gone to destruction without a battle, and Jeff Davis would have taken the place of Lincoln; and so, with a do-nothing President in 1869, in the absence of Congress, the administration signifies nothing. Hence it is all the same whether the President and his Cabinet are in Washington, at West Point, Long Branch, or the Great Salt Lake. The chief clerks of the departments all the same can dispose of the routine business of posting the books. General Frank Blair has expressed the opinion several times that General Grant, if installed in the White House, would become a despot, and take good care to hold his place to the end of his life. One would suppose, however, that he is satisfied with one term of four short years, and means to enjoy it; that he intends to leave all responsibilities with Congress, and does not care a snap of his finger for his policy, his party, or for Cuba, the Alabama claims, Mexico, or the succession, or anything else. One would think that, in avoiding the troubles of Andy Johnson, he has resolved, in having a good time, to follow the example of Captain Tyler.

A DRUNKARD'S STOMACH ON FIRE.

About midnight on Sunday last, the people of the village of Rainbow, near New Haven, Ct., were awakened by the cry of fire, which proved to be caused by the burning of a two story frame house owned by John Darwin, and occupied by him as a liquor saloon, which was completely destroyed. Those neighbors first on the spot, found Darwin lying on the ground so badly burned as to be nearly insensible. He was conveyed to a neighboring house, but died in great agony before morning. It appears that the unfortunate man, as soon as he had discovered the fire, ran out of the house, but subsequently returned to save his five sleeping children. He was badly intoxicated at the time, and entering the burning building, the flames struck him in the face, and immediately, owing to the amount of liquor he had drank, set fire to the inside of his throat and stomach, burning up his tongue, so that when he was found, that organ was a mere crisp. The children were saved by the neighbors, one of them badly scorched. The eldest boy says a general carousal had been going on in the saloon, and while some one intoxicated was drawing liquor, he probably set fire to an old bed near the barrel. Everything in the house was burned, and the children are thus left orphans and unprovided for.—Exchange.

The Masons of this town are now making preparations for their Grand excursion to Beaufort, on the 24th inst. An extra train will leave here on the morning of the 24th, and return the following day. Price of tickets $3 for male, and $1 for ladies or children.—Goldsboro Messenger.

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.

Being situated in the northwestern part of the State, in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.

The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrufula, weakness, debility dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.

The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.

Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.

FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.

A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC

Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.

Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CARTER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.

The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

JAS. H. ENNIS, AGENT.

June 7th, 2w.

ROBERT SOUTTER, OF GRANVILLE COUNTY, realizing the importance of spreading the growth of Wheat in this County; and the farmers, knowing so well the absolute necessity of supplying themselves at an early period with "Seed Wheat" of the finest quality, ready to plant in the Fall, the undersigned takes this early method of inviting applications from farmers, for what they may require to plant next Fall, of the very "Select Seed Wheat" which he expects to deliver at moderate prices, from the crop growing now at his "Oakland Farm" near Townesville, in this County.

This Wheat was planted last Fall, with Guano, of seed selected in Baltimore with great care by my predecessor, Mr. Chas. H. K. Taylor, who paid $3,25 for it there. It has had the advantage of a heavy top-dressing as Spring of Chicago bone Fertiliser, and is now very promising.

Like the good Sorghum Seed which I have offered to the farmers of Granville, I hope the orders for my "Seed Wheat" may be equally attractive, to absorb all that I can expect to spare of it.

Address me at Kittrell's Springs, or Mr. Thos. W. Taylor, at Oakland Farm.

FRIDAY, JUNE 18, 1869.

THE EXCURSION.

THE START FROM RALEIGH.

In accordance with the published programme, those from this City who intended to take advantage of this opportunity to visit the sea coast of Virginia, repaired on Tuesday night last about 12 o'clock to the depot.

There they found upon the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad a long train of well fitted up and comfortable passenger coaches, ready for their reception and awaiting the arrival of the train from Charlotte. After a delay of about an hour and a half duration, the faint and scarcely heard whistle of the locomotive together with distant rumbling noise, announced the approach of the anxiously looked for Charlotte train, and upon its arrival the fact disclosed itself that it consisted of eight spacious coaches, filled with ladies and gentlemen.

After a little time being necessarily spent in shifting the train of the North Carolina Railroad upon the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad and joining the two trains together, the welcome cry of "all aboard" was heard and greeted with loud cheers, and in a moment more the train moved slowly off, bearing away something over nine hundred hearts all filled with the highest anticipation of the good time they well knew was in store for them. Before getting beyond the corporate limits of this city our attention was called to the great and heretofore unparalleled length of the train, and more especially to the truly grand and beautiful spectacle it presented when steaming slowly around a curve, of length sufficient to allow one standing on the rear platform of the rear coach to see up to the locomotive. The coaches, fifteen in number, were all beautifully illuminated and when one did get a sight of the entire train under circumstances as above spoken of, it presented a spectacle of beauty that one rarely has the opportunity to witness.

Such was the large number of excursionists and the huge length of the train we at first felt, and even expressed some doubts, as to whether we should be able to make much headway, but on being informed that the new, powerful and magnificent engine, the Wm. J. Hawkins, was attached, and the engineer having charge of her, the well know, popular and skillful, Mr. Mort. Fleming, all of our fears were entirely obliterated, and away we sped with light and happy hearts, thinking joyously of the morrow.

We had almost forgotten to state that the Charlotte train brought down the Greensboro' Brass Band, consisting of twelve pieces, and led by Mr. R. W. Albright, Junior Editor of the Greensboro' Patriot, together with the colored band, headed by that irrepressible, ubiquitous and never-to-be forgotten, Frank Johnson, (who is not dead,) and most excellent and stirring music did they discourse. The run between this city and Weldon was of about four or five hours in length, and made most pleasant and agreeable by the untiring efforts of the efficient, kind and courteous Capt. A. B. Andrews, Superintendent of the R. & G. R. R., who was most zealously seconded, in every way, by that prince of Conductors, Capt. Arrington.

Both of the above named gentlemen are too well and favorably known in this State for us to either eulogize them as urbane courtly gentlemen or their undeniable qualifications for the positions which they so well and efficiently fill. In fact all of the officers and employees of the Road present, did everything in their power to render their guests comfortable.

WELDON

Was reached about half past six o'clock where we found E. G. Ghio, Esq., Master of Transportation of the Seaboard R. R., waiting to receive us with a warm and hearty welcome and ready to take the train to Portsmouth. It being understood that an hour would be allowed for breakfast, the whole party disembarked and proceeded to the Weldon Hotel, where we found a sumptuous breakfast awaiting us, prepared by Dr. G. W. Blacknall, the affable proprietor of the Hotel. After ample time being allowed in which to discuss the choice and appetizing viands spread before us, the whistle of the locomotive and ringing of bells summoned us to repair at once to the train, and after all were on board and comfortably seated, we were again en route for Portsmouth.

Here we were the recipients of unbounded hospitality and kindnesses. E. G. Ghio, of the Seaboard Railroad, President Smith, of the North Carolina Railroad, Capt. A. B. Andrews, of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, and Conductors Brown and Arrington, all united in rendering every conceivable attention and courtesy to the party.—Lunches, consisting of all delicacies of the season, were ready at all times. Refreshing beverages, of all kinds, were passed around continually. It is impossible, in the short time and small space, which we have at this writing at our command, to give an adequate and just description of the scene. Sparkling and exhilarating champagne, the joyous and silvery laughter and beaming, animated faces of beautiful ladies, and soft, sweet melodies from the bands, gave to the occasion a fascination, the memory of which will linger with the participants for many a day to come.

PORTSMOUTH.

Here, after being welcomed by the Mayor of Norfolk and a large delegation from the Board of Trade, the whole party was transferred to the splendid and spacious steamers, the Louisiana and Gen. N. P. Banks, and in a few moments were steaming out of the noble and beautiful harbor of Norfolk, on our way to Fortress Monroe. It was the good fortune of the writer of this, to get upon the Gen. Banks, and never did a "man of the quill," fall into such good hands or fare better. Any endeavor to enter into a minute and elaborate description of the different objects of historical or other interest which were to be seen would consume more time and space than we are able to give, therefore, we give, without any comments, a bare list, in the order which they came, as we were speeding on our way to Old Point; Fort Norfolk Marine Hospital, Pinner's Point Battery, Lambert's Point Battery, Craney Island Battery, Sewell's Point Battery, Rip Raps, &c., &c. Among the many objects of interest in the harbor was the United States, 74 gun, man-of-war, New Hampshire, now used as a receiving ship; the Monitor Saugus, and lying off Old Point, were the sloop-of-war, Macedonia and Sassanah, now used as school ships, having on board the Midshipmen from the Naval School at Annapolis. We understood they would proceed in a day or two upon the usual summer cruise.

FORTRESS MONROE.

To undertake, even a brief description of the numerous interesting objects at this place, would require something like a volume, and for the sake of brevity we extract the following from one of the Norfolk papers:

"The whole party, arriving at the Point were invited to the Fortress by General Barry, Commanding, where they were received by fine music discoursed by the celebrated Old Point Band, and witnessed a dress parade of five companies of artillery, Gen. Barry, commanding. Everybody was struck with astonishment with the different military evolutions of the companies, the rapidity with which they loaded and fired at will and by platoon, &c. They used the famous Prussian needle gun, which was a rare curiosity to all, and well worth seeing.

After roaming about the Fortress for an hour the whistles of the steamers gave signal of departure. All were soon on board again and homeward bound."

It is but just that some mention should be made of the kind, hospitable and courteous manner in which the officers of the Old Dominion Line served their guests.—The President, N. L. McCready, Esq., Superintendent T. N. McCready, Esq., Treasurer W. Hunt, Esq., and the Agent at Norfolk, T. H. Webb, Esq., were present, and were ever active in furthering by all means in their power the enjoyment of the moment. Refreshments of all kinds of both a solid and liquid nature, were in the greatest profusion, and the hearty and whole soul manner in which they were offered added no little to the zest with which they were enjoyed. To the the polite and attentive commanders of the Banks, Capt. P. McCarrick, too many thanks cannot be bestowed. His courteous bearing and never varying kindness will long be remembered by his passengers. More efficient and at the same time more gentlemanly officers than those mentioned above are not to be found anywhere.

Capt. Robinson, President of the Seaboard R. R., Mr. E. G. Ghio, Master of Transportation of the same Road, and Mr. D. W. Hill, the Treasurer, were also present, and prominent in contributing to the pleasure of the excursion. From those who were on the steamer Louisiana, of the Baltimore Steam Packet Line, we learn that they were treated in the same royal style, and spoke in terms of unqualified praise of Superintendent W. C. Smith; Treasurer Walter Ball; Agent at Norfolk, John Vermillion, and especially of Capt. T. J. Hill, who commands the boat.

Arriving at Norfolk, we were escorted, according to the programme, to the Opera House, where we were welcomed by Mayor DeCordy, in behalf of the citizens of Norfolk, in a neat and suitable address. Cols. Hinton and Lamb, and Judge Osborne, of Charlotte, N. C, also rendered graceful fluent, and cheering addresses, which were received with a great degree of enthusiasm.

From the Opera House we were conducted to the second floor of Burruss and Harrison's Banking establishment, where was spread for our benefit and appreciation an elegant banquet, comprising viands of the most delicate as well as substantial manner. The Hall was decorated with American flags.

At the conclusion of the banquet the party dispersed to their several places of abode, and if all passed the intervening time before departure as agreeably and pleasantly as we individually did, then everybody had a most glorious time.

DEPARTURE.

Next morning punctual to the time published (10 o'clock A. M.) the excursion train moved off from Portsmouth, leaving though a great many behind in Norfolk unable to tear themselves away from that thriving and hospitable City. When about four or five miles on this side of Norfolk, we passed a noble and flourishing Vineyard, of over an hundred acres in extent, belonging to our energetic fellow citizen Thos. Hogg Esq., and Messrs. Swepson and Cannon.—Another among many evidences of North Carolina skill and enterprise upon Virginia soil. Some individual hailing from West of the Blue Ridge sitting near us, having put his head out of the window to look at the Vineyard, suddenly drew it in and with a look of unbounded astonishment, drew a long breath and said in audible tone "I'll swear that's the d——dest snap patch I ever saw." All during the return we were the objects of the same unremitted and unbounded kindness of all of the officers and employees of the various Railroads engaged in the excursion.

Weldon was soon reached, after stoping only long enough to partake of a splendid dinner prepared by that prince of Caterers Blacknall, were again on the rail bound Raleighward.

RALEIGH

Was reached about half past 8 o'clock, P. M., without accident, and everybody delighted with the journey. Here the Hon. Ralph Gorrell, of Guilford, returned the thanks of the excursionists to President Smith, of the N. C. R. R., and Superintendent Andrews, of the R. & G. R. R. President Smith responded in an appropriate and neat little speech of about ten minutes. At the conclusion of the speaking we bid adieu to our Western friends, who, like us, had only one thing to regret, that was, the conclusion of such a delightful excursion.

Among the members of the press of this State the following accompanied the excursion: Albright & Bro., Patriot, Greensboro'; J. O. H. Nutall, Examiner, Salisbury; C. Harris, Index, Henderson; W. A. Hearn, Messenger, Goldsboro'; Mr. Evans, Recorder, Hillsboro'; Dr. T. W. C. Benbow, Commercial Bulletin, Greensboro'; J. B. Whitaker, Times, Goldsboro'; W. H. Uzzell, News, Weldon; R. H. Aldrich, Times, Charlotte.

We had the pleasure of seeing from Orange county Paul C. Cameron, Esq., Hon. J. W. Graham, Captain Berry, Thos. Hill, Esq., Sam Hughes, Esq., A. Brown, Esq., Thos. Freeland, Esq., and others. Mecklenburg was well represented and among the number we saw Thos. Dewey, Esq., Mayor Dowd and Dr. McAden. From Guilford, among the rest, Hon. R. Gorrel, D. W. Murray, Esq., Wm. Caldwell, Esq, J. M. N. Caldwell, President of the Edgeworth College at Greensboro were present. Among the gentlemen present from Alamance county, we had the pleasure of seeing the Hon. W. A. Moore and P. McSwaim, of Graham. There were numerous other prominent and distinguished gentlemen from various parts of the State present whose names escape our memory.

Among the prominent citizens of Baltimore, we saw Col. Powell, Jr. G. McPheters, Esq., Skipwith Wilmer, Esq., and others.

We understand that Mayor Banks, President of the Corn Exchange, and other distinguished invited guests from that City intended to have been present, but were prevented from so doing by business engagements.

A SAD REPLY.

The following incident, particularly the expression of the poor negro, suggests much sad reflection to the minds of those who have sympathy for suffering humanity.—Seldom is more touching language used—seldom a more striking metaphor, than we find in that significant reply:

The statement is that recently Mr. Lassiter, of Oxford, passing through Petersburg, saw at the hotel a freedman whom he had known in the days of slavery. He was one of those sprightly, popular waiters that become extensively known and receive very many marks of favor and encouragement from boarders and travellers. When Mr. L. saw him this time, he espied a little son of the good servant running about with a book in his hand, and called his father's attention to it as a reason for hope and expectation for the future. The earnest and impressive response to the congratulation was, "Ah, Mr. Lassiter, the sun has gone down at my house."

Who can consider, without poignant sorrow over an unfortunate people, how many there are in this broad land who like poor John have to suffer the melancholy realization that their lauded manumission was but the deprivation of the privileges and comforts they enjoyed before and a subjection to hardships and sufferings such as they never had known or feared.

INSANITY—MEETING OF SUPERINTENDENTS FOR ITS CURE.

STAUNTON, VA., June 15.

The twenty third annual meeting of the Association of Medical Superintendents of American Institutions for the Insane convened here to-day, Dr. Kirkbride, of Philadelphia, president, in the chair, and Dr. Curwen, of Harrisburg, acting as secretary.

Nearly all the States and the Dominion of Canada were represented. The proceedings were highly interesting.

Dr. Curwen, of Pennsylvania, read a report upon the treatment of the insane in private institutions, in which he took occasion to express his contempt for the conduct of certain legislators in passing rules and regulations for the government and treatment of maladies of which they are totally ignorant.

Dr. Ray presented an important paper on the law of insanity in which were described several recent judicial decisions, showing most gratifying progress in the right direction. The decision of the Chief Justice of New Hampshire, in a recent criminal case, was regarded as embodying the really correct law in respect to insanity as an excuse for crime. All questions of insanity, including tests and definitions, are questions of fact, to be determined by the jury; and the duty of the court is confined to giving simple instructions that if they find the prisoner to have been insane when he committed the act, and that the offspring of such disease, they must acquit him on the ground of insanity.

After an amusing discussion in regard to the treatment of the insane in Massachusetts one hundred years ago, by ducking and confinement in high pressure compressed water tanks, and conversation on scientific subjects, the convention adjourned till nine o'clock to morrow morning.

A REMARKABLE CAVE.—There is a cave in Russia, not far from Orenburg, which possesses the remarkable character of being partly filled with ice in summer, and totally destitute of it in winter. The better the air outside, says Sir. Roderick Murchison, the colder it is inside. Its property depends on the arrangements of the currents of air, and the principle that evaporation produces cold. Many years ago President Hitchcock applied the same principle to the explanation of the frozen well of Brandon, Vermont.

The following amusing bull was lately perpetrated at Bristol, England. A magistrate asked a prisoner if he were married. "No," replied the man. "Then," rejoined his worship, amid peals of laughter "it's good for your wife."

A contemporary says that transcendentalism is the spiritual cognoscence of psychological irrefragibility, connected with concutant ademption of encolumnient spiritnality and etherialised contention of subsultory concretion.

IN THE MATTER OF B. F. MOORE ESQUIRE.

In answer to the oft expressed wishes of the public, we give to-day a full report of the argument of Hon. William H. Battle, before the Supreme Court, in the contempt case, which has been kindly furnished for the purpose. We hope to lay before our readers the arguments of the other gentlemen who appeared as counsel for the respondents, at any early day:

Mr. William H. Battle said: that, as one of the counsel for Mr. Moore, he would proceed to read his answer to the rule which had been served upon him.

"In the Supreme Court June Term 1869.

In the matter of B. F. Moore, Thomas Bragg and Ed. Graham Haywood.

The several answer of B. F. Moore to the rule herein made by said Court and served upon him:

This Respondent protesting that a rule which deprives him, even temporarily, of his privilege as an Attorney of said Court, ought not to have been made in his absence, without notice to him, and without affidavit or other legal proof of the facts upon which said rule is based, respectfully answers:

I. That he admits the signing and publishing of the paper called "A solemn protest of the Bar of North Carolina against Judicial interference is political affairs," but insists that the Supreme Court hath no authority in law to make, or jurisdiction to enforce, said rule.

II. That the publication referred to in said rule is not libellous, and doth not tend to impair the respect due to the authority of said Court.

III. And for further answer this Respondent saith, that said paper was conceived and prepared during the recent political canvass for the Presidency, and its publication deferred until after the close of the canvass to avoid its having the appearance of a partizan document. He admits that his purpose was to express his disapprobation of the conduct of individuals occupying high judicial stations, yet, as an act of justice to himself against the charge made in the rule, he not only disavows, in signing and publishing said paper, any intention of committing a contempt of the Supreme Court or of impairing the respect due to its authority, but on the contrary, he avows his motive to have been to preserve the purity which had ever distinguished the administration of justice by the Courts of this State.'

Mr. Battle, after reading the answer, moved to discharge the rule, and based his motion upon two grounds, upon either of which he felt confident, it must be sustained. The first ground was, that the rule had been improvidently issued, because there was no contempt of the Court, and therefore no case for which his friend and client could be called upon to answer before the Court.

It was formerly difficult, upon reading the authorities, to ascertain with any certainty, what could be deemed a contempt of Court. In most instances, contempts are committed in open Court, by rude and improper conduct, either by officers of the Court, or by persons attending upon it; but he admitted that there were circumstances under which a contempt might be committed in the absence of the Court. It seemed to him, that for the purpose of settling the difficulties which had arisen in attempting to determine what are contempts of Court, our Legislature had, at its last session, laid down and prescribed what, and what only, are to be regarded as contempts of the Courts of North Carolina. He referred to the Act in relation to proceedings in contempt, ratified the 10th day of April 1869, which was a law at the time when the Protest in question was published; and he contended that by that act alone this Court should be governed in the present case.—The act was, as presumed, prepared by the Code Commissioners, and was intended to be the law of North Coralina upon the subject of contempts for the future. And it was eminently proper and right that it should be so, for the liberty of the citizen required that he should be certainly informed as to the law, before he should be held responsible for obedience to it.—The counsel then read the first seven specifications in the act for which a person might be punished for a contempt, and showed that neither of them was at all applicable to a case like the present. He said that the 8th was the only section upon which a question could be raised. That section relates to the "misbehavior of any officer of a court in any official transaction," and cannot apply here, because the signers and publishers of the Protest were not, while doing so, engaged in any official transaction. It was not signed nor published during the session, and did not constitute a contempt, of the Court; and as the Court could not deal with it except as a contempt, the rule, as he confidently asked, should be discharged upon this ground.

2. The counsel said that, if he were mistaken as to his first ground of defence, he then relied upon the second. He argued that, as it is well known that a crime consists of both an act and an intent, there must be, to constitute a criminal offence, an act committed with a criminal intent. Hence, an insane person cannot commit a crime, because his act cannot be accompanied by a guilty will. In the third article of his answer, his friend and client, Mr. Moore, has disavowed, in the most solemn manner, that he intended, by signing and publishing the Protest, any contempt of the Court. On the contrary, he adds, that his motive was to preserve the purity which had ever distinguished the administration of justice by the Court, and as it was only for a contempt of the Court that he could be punished, his disavowal had removed the imputation of contempt from what was sought to be treated as such. In support of this position, Mr. Battle referred to the case of the People vs. Few, which occurred in the State of New York, as reported in 2 John, Rep. 289, in which the Court held, that to constitute a contempt of Court, there must be an intention to commit such contempt. He insisted that this case was entitled to the highest respect, because it was decided by one of the ablest Courts which ever sat in this country. At the head of it, was James Kent, known throughout the Union as one among its most learned and accomplished jurists. His associates were, first, Smith Thompson, afterwards Secretary of the Navy, and then for many years a Judge of the Supreme Court of the United States; secondly, Ambrose Spencer, scarcely inferior as a profound lawyer to Chief Justice Kent, to whose office he after wards succeeded, and, lastly, Daniel D. Tompkins, who subsequently became Governor of New York and Vice President of the United States. Judge Tompkins did not deliver any opinion, doubtless, because he had just been nominated for the office of Governor, in opposition to Gov. Lewis, at whose instance it was sought to have the defendant, Few, punished for a contempt. The counsel remarked that for all he knew to the contrary, Governor Lewis was defeated in the election partly in consequence of that prosecution, as the case showed that it grew out of the political contest. Upon these grounds Mr. Battle contended that the Court must come to the conclusion that this case did not fall within any law of North Carolina amounting to a contempt; and if it did, that whatever of contempt might have been supposed to exist had been completely negatived by the answer of the Respondent. He concluded with the emphatic declaration that he did not believe—he could not believe—that the Court would punish, by degrading from the Bar, a man who had been distinguished throughout life for his love of law and order, and who in the late civil troubles had never swerved in his allegiance to the Constitution and the Union.

TUCKER'S.—Passing the large Dry Goods establishment of these enterprising merchants, this morning, our attention was directed to a new supply of various fashionable articles, for ladies and gentleman's wear—among them a large lot of those neat and fashionable white hats, now becoming so much in vogue, and which they offer at an unprecedented low prices; also, to ladies and Misses hats and "sundowns," of very fine texture and at prices that could not possibly be grumbled at.—The Messrs. Tucker & Co., have a very large stock of fashionable goods on hand, and a full corps of polite clerks who will show them to all who may call. See their advertisements.

QUITE A FRACAS.—The usual quiet monotony of local matters in our city was broken by a fracas on Wilmington Street, this morning, in which a man by the name of McDougal, said to be from Franklinton, got an ugly cut on the head by a stick in hands of N. V. Denton, who keeps a drinking saloon corner Wilmington Street and Market Square. As an investigation will probably be had in the matter, we refrain from giving the rumors in connection with it, simply stating that it originated, as we learn, in a bet between McDougal and some other party, with which Denton had nothing to do, except to give his opinion in regard to some point connected with it when asked to do so. This exasperated McDougal, who followed Denton to his place of business, abusing and threatening him, when Denton gave him one stroke, which knocked him senseless for a time. Dr. McKee was called in and examined the wound, which he thought pretty severe but not very dangerous.

PERSONAL.—Hon. E. S. Fisher, of Mississippi, arrived in this city this morning and is at stoping the Yarborough House.

For the Sentinel.

QUERIES.—Mr. Turner: The Commissioners of the City have a legal right to build a market house, a mayor's office, a guard room, and a room for the engine. Have they any more authority to build a restaurant and a theatre than they have to build a livery stable or a dry good store? Had they any right to reject a bid of $27,000 to build the new market house, put in by a skillful and responsible architect, and accept a bid of $34,000, put in by an architect not more skillful and respectable? In other words have they the right to give away $7,000 of the people's money? Many poor people, white and colored, are interested in these questions.

A TAX PAYER.

[We think "a tax payer" has a perfect right to demand an answer to his interrogatories, but if he gets satisfactory answers to them, he will be more fortunate than a great many "tax payers" of Raleigh have been yet.]

The right of negroes to hold office in Georgia is before the Supreme Court of that State.

LITERARY LEGISLATORS.—We have come into possession of two literary gems, being epistolary productions of two members of our Legislature, one of them a member of the Senate; the other, of the House of Representatives. How we came into possession of these documents is nobody's business but the authors', and we can satisfy them on the subject whenever they desire it. We have the original manuscript of each, laid away carefully and subject to order.

The first is the production of Mr. Epps, of Halifax county, Senator, and reads as follows:

"Sister mary i Wood hav sent your by your husband if i had known when he was GoinG to leve. you Just buse him for me but dont you hurt your Self in so doing you offection brothear.

HENRY EPPS."

What it was that Henry was going to send to "Sister mary" by her husband, the manuscript does not inform us

The next is from Coffee Mayo, it is more of a business order. It is as follows:

"Mr. Mallory i have pade thet fifteen dollars witCh you rote to me to do and hav take rCeet form the EaGant you Can Get you bankruptay at any time i wold hav due it beb fore know but i Coolent Get the monea enoGoaney anatheing more at Present but remain triend Coffee Mayo."

And these are North Carolina's lawmakers! Holden's pets, Lassiter's colleagues and many a Rad's superior!

WE insert the following by request:

At a special meeting of Sedgwick Post No. 2, G. A. R., the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we, the members of Sedgwick Post, No. 2, G. A. R., of Raleigh, N. C., return our thanks to the ladies of this city who kindly contributed flowers and assisted in decorating the graves of the Union dead, on the 29th day of May 1869; also to the gentlemen who aided us in our charitable work by contributions in money.

THE POST.

CHICKEN CHOLERA.—A fatal disease, which goes by this name, has been destroying the chickens at a fearful rate in some parts of this State. In Orange and Person Counties large numbers have died—some persons losing nearly or quite all from well-stocked yards. A correspondent in the Rural New Yorker states that asafœtida is a good antidote—both as preventive and remedy. It is mixed in the dough and put in the water they drink. One lady in Orange tried it so far as putting it in the water, and her chickens have escaped while her neighbors have suffered a destructive visitation of the disease. Some think garlic and onions, chopped up and mixed in the dough, are of decided benefit. If any of our readers find these remedies effectual, or others that are so, we shall be glad to publish the fact for the benefit of our subscribers.

MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS OF THE W. & T. R. R.—According to notice the stockholders of this Road met in Williamston on Monday last. We have not yet received full particulars of the meeting, but learn from Gen. Lewis the following facts:

The line of the Road was finally located from the Old Mill Wharf, on the Roanoke River at Williamston, via Robasonville, Bethel and Little Creek,—to cross Tar River at Tar Landing and pass up Mill Creek Street to the Tarborough Branch Road.

The following gentlemen were elected Directors for the ensuing year, viz: Gen. J. R. Stubbs, C. B. Hassell, J. Edwin Moore, John R. Lanier, H. D. Robason, Jos. S. Stanton and Jos. B. Coffield.

Messrs. Wm. A. Weatherbee and R. C. Brown were appointed on a Committee of Finance, to which Committee the Directors afterwards added Mr. Dennis Simmons.

At a meeting of Directors on the same day, Gen. J. B. Stubbs was chosen President. Gen. W. G. Lewis, Chief Engineer and Superintendent, Jos. D. Biggs, Treasurer and Secretary.

Mr. Henry A. Brown, of Newbern, was appointed Assistant Engineer.—Tarboro Southerner.

SUMMER RESORTS.—We clip the following from the Tarboro Southerner:

As many of our people are now making preparation for their yearly exodus to some more healthy resorts during the summer months, we would bring to their attention the inducements presented by one in our own State. Though Beaufort Harbor may not have the reputation of other more celebrated and fashionable watering places, it still combines all the elements for a most pleasant sojourn, health, facility of approach and cheapness.

In alluding to the advantages offered by this resort, the Newbern Journal of Commerce says: "Season tickets, at moderate rates, can be secured, and at Morehead City and at Beaufort, two pleasant hotels are open for the accommodation of guest.—In addition to these, there are a number of private dwellings for rent. To us, who know so well the healthfulness of this part of our sea coast, the delightfulness of the climate, and the many enjoyments and pleasures of a residence there, it has long been a wonder that so few seek the sea side during the summer months. Our people are poor but they must be carful of health—the only wealth left them, and as many of them as can, should make their preparations at once to spend one, or more, of the Summer months on Beaufort Harbor.

EXPERIMENTS WITH RAIN WATER

The Lowell Courier says that on the 4th of June, 1828, Mr. James V. Atkinson, of that city, caught some rain water from the roof of his house, put it in a pan and let it settle for twenty four hours, and then corked it up in two gallon demijohns. The water was occasionally tested, and in 1832, when President Jackson paid a visit to Lowell, Mr. Atkinson carried some of the water to the Merrimack House, and Gen. Jackson, Secretaries Van Buren and Woodbury and other dignitaries then present, tasted of the water, which they pronounced equal to any spring water for purity and sweetness. In 1850 Mr. Atkinson carried some of the same water to Montreal and Quebec. The Mayor of the last-named city, and prominent men of both places, tasted the water, and found it perfectly sweet and palatable. The following year (1829), Mr. Atkinson, about the same time in June, caught water in the same manner in two hogsheads. One of them, an old hogshead, was not disturbed during the summer, but was covered up with rough boards. A film of oil rose to the top of the water, and in September on opening the hogshead the water beneath the oil was found perfectly pure and sweet. The point made is that rain water caught at this time of year, say before the second week in June, will keep a long time perfectly pure and sweet. Experiments performed since show that water caught later will invariably grow impure and tainted.

STATE NEWS.

A BIG RAT KILLING.—We are informed by our friend Simeon Waggoner, of Gibsonville, that he and his neighbors killed 530 grown rats on his premises in one day. This was a slaughter worth talking about. Such a number of rats would have eaten many a less thrifty farmer out of house and home.—Greensboro Patriot.

MATRIMONIAL.—"There is many a slip between the cup and the lip." This old aphorism was verified in this city on Wednesday evening in this wise: On that morning a young gentleman went to a distinguished Minister to engage his services to tie the knot matrimonial for a friend on the following morning. The wedding dresses were prepared and the gloves procured, and all promised to go "as merrily as a marriage bell," when lo! the lady changed her mind, as ladies have a right to do, and without saying by your leave, &c., took a quiet walk to a neighbor's, where she was met by a former lover and a J. P., who duly married them "according to law."—Carolina Times.

FOURTH OF JULY.—The people of Salisbury are talking of getting up a celebration of the anniversary of American Independence, on the approaching 4th of July.

LEARNED MAGISTRATES.—When we last heard from Squire James M. Jones he was not crying because Paul would'nt shake hands with him as a brother in the "loil league," in that foul nest at Yanceyville, nor was he in a grog shop drinking with a negro, to the sentiment of "equality!" No—the squire was holding a court—assisted by Chief Justice Chandler. Jones was turning over the pages of the New Testament to see how to spell Jeremiah, and the 'Chief Justice' was peering over the pages of an old dictionary to see how to spell 'William!' It seems that they had some negroes up for fighting—one of them a man in the employ of the Hon. Giles Mebane, who attended this 'court' to see justice done his man. But without trial or investigation, squire Jones imposed pains and penalties on Mr. Mebane's man, to which this gentleman objected, and demanded for him a trial and investigation of facts before conviction and punishment.—Jones, who thinks he's a Tycoon, claimed the right to dispose of the case as he thought proper: Mr. Mebane thereupon fleeced the 'squire,' and no skunk ever writhed under a skinning operation equal to this mush headed Tycoon: It resulted in fixing a day for trial—Mr. Mebane standing for the appearance of his man. The time for trial arrived; all the parties attended, but the Tycoon declined an investigation, and pronounced the dire sentence of the court, which consigned Mr. Mebane's man to jail. Mr. Mebane again took issue with the 'honorable court' and handled it with gloves off. He called on a gentleman to witness that the 'court' had promised his man a trial before conviction, and yet they refused to give him a trial, and without hearing the evidence had passed sentence on his man. This rather "skeered" the 'court,' and they gave the colored man a hearing, when the "court" fined the man $20, which Mr. Mebane paid for him, and then the 'honorable court' fined Mr. Mebane $50 for 'contempt of court,' which he agreed to pay, upon the 'court' reducing the language to writing, but the 'court' didn't know how to do it, and remitted the fine.—Milton Chronicle.

Many houses in the city, in which colored persons reside, have been visited by burglars during the past week, and more or less robbery committed. In the Fifth, Sixth and Seventh Wards these visitations are particularly severe and frequent.—Jour. of Com.

FIRE.—About two o'clock last night, the dread alarm of fire was heralded forth upon the still air by the bell over the police station, and immediately the city was in commotion. The fire engines were promptly started for the scene; but when they arrived it was found that their services were not required, the flames having already been extinguished.

The alarm was caused by a barrel of ashes on the premises of Mr. Z. Slade, igniting and communicating with an adjacent fence, and thence to a small out house. Little or no damage resulted.—Newbern Jour. of Com.

FIGHT IN THE JAIL.—Two colored viragoes, confined in Craven street jail, created some excitement, yesterday, by pummelling each other until separated by one of the warders. So violent were they that it was found necessary to manacle them.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

SOMETHING NEW.—A chimney sweep has been licensed in Wilmington, which is, perhaps, the first and only instance of the kind in our State, at least, since the old Colonial days.

At one of our common schools, the teacher, in catechising his scholars, put the following question: "What was made to give light to the world?" "Matches!" cried one of the youngsters, after a short pause.

"I always sing to please myself," said a gentleman who was humming a tune in company. "Then you are not at all difficult to please," said a lady who sat next to him.

"Peter, are you into them sweet meats again?"

"No marm: the sweet meats are into me!"

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Revenue to-day is $326,000.

Secretary Creswell has made four thousand postal changes in the last 48 hours.

Treasurer Spinner's wife is dead.

President Grant returns on Monday.

Dr. Brink, Mexican Consul, sails to-day.

Cubans have the following advices: The fight at Puerto Del Padre was more important than at first reported. The Spanish defeat was decisive, almost destroying the effectiveness of the Spanish forces on that portion of the Island, and opens direct communication with the sea, and enabling the Cubans to protect the landing of reinforcements from the United States. The Cubans here are very solicitous to hear from General Jordan's command. Last advices placed him in close proximity with the enemy and a battle was imminent. Cespedes and Lucesda express themselves confident as being masters of the situation.

Every expedition from the United States has landed safely and joined the insurgents and form a formidable force, and are successful in every conflict with the Spaniards.

It is stated that Federal agents report a general indisposition on the part of Cuban leaders to entertain annexation questions.

HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES SAY OF THE

BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIJUR WRIGHT.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

OLD TIMES.

There's a beautiful song on the slumbrous air
That drifts through the valley of dreams;
It comes from a clime where the roses were,
And a tuneful heart and bright brown hair
That waved in the morning beams.

Soft eyes of azure and eyes of brown
And snow-white foreheads are there;
A glimmering dress and a glittering crown,
A thorny bed and a couch of down,
Lost hopes and leaflets of prayer.

A breath of spring in the breezy woods,
Sweet wafts from the quivering pines—
Blue violet eyes beneath green hoods,
A bubble of brooklets, a scent of buds,
Bird-warbles and clambering vines.

A rosy wreath in a dimpled hand,
A ring and a slighted vow—
Three golden links of a broken band,
A tiny track on the snow-white sand,
A tear and a sinless brow.

There's a tincture of grief in the beautiful song
That sobs on the slumbrous air,
And loneliness felt in the festive throng,
Sinks down in the soul as it trembles along
From a clime where the roses were,

We heard it first at the dawn of day,
And it mingled with matin chimes.
But years have distanced the beautiful lay,
And its melody floweth from far away,
And we call it, now, Old Times.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

$1,000,000,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers, and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so fuddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he looks into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

U. S. A.

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL, as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,583 policies.

Amount insured,	$10,005,550.00
Total Premiums,	330,117.03

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 802

By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey,	693
" New England Mutual,	343
" Phœnix-Mutual,	335
" Massachusetts Mutual,	312
" Equitable of New York,	277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 479 policies.

In its 10th year,	1,260 "
And in its 20th year,	2,842 "

this latter being 680 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

FIRST CLASS NEWSPAPER.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest lace to the tent-hanker. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does NOT full them all in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.
